H.E. Sayed Mohammad Shirazi has pioneered many important topics throughout his years of research, including and not limited to the following

Peace

Peace is an essential pillar of the political theory presented and advocated by Ayatollah Shirazi in all his books and studies. Peace is the aim and objective, as well as the means to get to the aim.

Shirazi stresses on the fact that the consequence of peace is the safest and best. One must act peacefully in all aspects of life.

Political pluralism

Shirazi considers pluralism as a watchdog for the conduct and behavior of the ruling body. It guarantees the sound state of the government. Pluralism is a must for any country that wants to protect a system in which freedom can thrive

The Family

Ayatollah Shirazi has key answers to the social problems of today.

A good upbringing and the development of an environment of tolerance and loving and non-violence are the best way in manifold areas of life. Hence parents should school and train themselves and their children in noble morals, praiseworthy virtues and non-violence in marital matters so that they may find happiness in this world and the hereafter

Economic Solutions

To ensure equality amongst the citizens, fair economic solutions need to be adopted to all levels of the society. This is a crucial matter for the growth and sustainability of any country. Ayatollah Shirazi offers key points and suggestions based on the Islamic Laws that tie the economic viewpoint and rights of the citizens

Non-Violence

Peace and non-violence are the essence of Islam and the basis of its teachings. They are in harmony with the spirit of Islam

Coexistence

Skin color, Ethnicity and background should not prevent one from practicing his rights, pursuing his individual freedom and coexisting with others

Rights of Individuals

Recognition of Rights of individuals, as members of society or individual human beings, is one of the most important avenues to prevent long term collapse of a society

While studying Ayatollah Shirazi's theory of Islam deeply, one finds it to be centered on two essential points: 1- Collective Leadership ( Shura ) , 2- Elections. He remarkably combines these two aspects, showing great consideration for scholarship on the one hand and the rights of the nation on the other. He also shows a great consideration for the innate fundamental nature of freedom, which he deeply believes in and very strongly advocates. He, in fact, strikes a tight dialectic relationship between freedom and justice

“ Kuwait’s relatively liberal political atmosphere attracted Shi’ite activists, including Muhammad al-Hussaini al-Shirazi. Shirazi added an ideological dimension to an independent base of Shi’ite presence there. -AEI American Enterprise Institute

Intellectual Development

Shirazi views intellectual growth as a prerequisite to growth in faith and that they are directly linked. In order for a society to grow, its intelligent assets (people) should work cooperatively as institutions and organizations to bring about overall growth

Economic self-sufficiency

In order to reduce and eliminate economic instability, we draw from Islamic Law, Ayatollah Shirazi suggests an Islamic banking system with zero interest, where borrowers have maximum financial growth ability at minimum expense.

All inclusiveness

All inclusiveness and cultural establishment are essential needs of citizen. Shirazi foundation sees educating individuals about Prophet Mohammad’s (pbuh) all inclusive ideology, will be a helpful tool in elevating individuals to become contributors to an all-inclusive government.

“ Ayatollah Shirazi was one of Iraq’s most learned and trusted scholars of Islamic jurisprudence, a mujtahid, and he unflinchingly criticized the Baathists, a dangerous practice under an anti-Shia regime whose ideology and rule were based on consensus through fear
